ENVY OF THE WORLD
 The history of the world, since recorded time began, has been blackened at regular and frequent intervals by terrible famines. Countless millions have died miserably from hunger. And those cataclysms were not confined to long past, primitive times. In the last quarter century starvation has stalked thru China, Russia, and other nations.

Yes, in the United States we have never had a famine. Some say short-sightedly that this is because we are blessed with an abundance of resources. But other countries, where the standard of living is abysmally low compared with ours, have great resources also. Some may think it is because we work harder. Yet in the hunger ridden nations the average man and woman work much longer hours, and perform a great deal more manual labor, than does the average American.

The basic reason for our abundance lies elsewhere. It has been in a theory of government that encourages every man to do his utmost and reap the rewards that has stimulated voluntary, individual enterprise and that, finally, has given every man the right to compete with any other in his chosen field.

We see how this system works on every hand. As a simple example, every American can walk into a store and buy all the meat he wants—something that is impossible in most other countries. Free enterprise is responsible for putting that meat in the butcher's showcase, for turning steers, hogs and other animals into cuts that are ready for consumption. To meet the needs of the country, a great packing industry has been developed to bridge the gap between the live-stock producer and our homes. It performs a vital service at a cost which is almost unbelievably small.

So it goes, in every field of enterprise. Free people, working in a free society, have made the American standard of living the envy of the world.

send dollars for use in acquiring a home. Eligible for the grants are veterans of War or Postoffice Service in the armed forces since August 1948 who have a permanent total service connected disability . . . due to a spinal cord disease or injury, resulting in paralysis of the legs and the lower part of the body.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kirchman announce the birth of a daughter on August 21st at the Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach. She has been named Mildred Edith.

VETERANS NEWS

Under regulations which took effect on July 1, 1948, the VA ruled out certain courses . . . such as Dancing, Bartending, Photography, Personality Development and others . . . unless the veteran wishing to take the course can prove that in his individual case, it leads directly to an educational or employment objective.

VA made it clear, however, that the veteran who wants to earn his living by being a pilot is not barred from flight instruction at government expense. He must prove that the course he wants will eventually lead to a pilot's job.

Single Subject Courses
 With respect to single subject courses at school, which are not a part of a general education or training program, leading to an educational or employment objective . . . the bureau directed its attention to the veteran himself. Other courses, which are well-known to managers of VA regional offices as being frequently pursued for avocational or recreational purposes, must also be justified to VA by the veteran as leading to an educational objective.

Restrictions do not apply to courses in applied music, physical education or public speaking which have always been considered as leading to educational objectives.

years and this year was one of their luckiest.

Troop 14 sponsored by the Northwood Methodist Church planted 40 of the most popular tropical fruit trees. Troop 45 sponsored by the Elks Club planted 53 budding mango trees which included a sample of the most desirable varieties. Troop 13, sponsored by the Riverside Lions Club planted 40 mulberry trees. Troop 13, sponsored by the M. E. 131st Presbyterian Church plans to plant a variety of bamboo some native and some from the islands.

The tropical trees were donated by the Island Landscaping Co., the mangoes were donated by Zill Mango Nursery of Delray, the mulberry by Mrs. Frank J. Lewis and the bamboo by Sturrock Tropical Fruit Nursery.

Present plantings include such trees as: sapodillas, Annona, Barbados cherries, guavas, guava, flame trees, Spanish plums, citrus, avocados, Jaboticaba, star apple, rose apple, monticola, guava berry, and Kei apple. Many of the trees have fruits highly attractive to birds.

Since Palm Beach County has filled in the low lands, the Scout Camp has considerable more acreage which they hope to fill with tropical trees and shrubs. Troops or individuals wishing to add to plant life of Lake Osborne are welcome.

If You Wish To Join Marines, Act Now!

"Young men of draft age who wish to serve with the United States Marines had better act early," according to Colonel Donald Spicer, officer in charge of Marine recruiting in the southeastern states.

Colonel Spicer referred to the ruling made by Defense Secretary Forrestal that young men who have received their draft notices may not volunteer for military service.

"The Defense Secretary has ruled that, whenever possible, the inductee will be given a chance to name the branch of service he wants," said the Colonel, "but, if present voluntary enlistments keep up, the Marine Corps will not require inductees."

"The enlistment rates now are very high in the Marine Corps," continued Colonel Spicer, "but it is not true that the Marines are all filled up as has been indicated by some news releases. Although the enlistment standards—Don'tHog all ment standards have been raised there is still room for the alert and ambitious young man."

CITY TO REIMPOSE

bills amounting to $981.88; $894.34 being paid out of the Water Department funds and $297.44 coming out of the city's general funds.

W. C. Young was present on behalf of the different organizations named in a resolution read to the Commission by the city clerk asking that a movement be started to issue bonds in the amount of $75,000 for the purpose of constructing a city swimming pool at the cost of approximately $80,000, and a municipal park in the corner section of the city to cost approximately $15,000.

There was controversy over the proposed location on which the pool would be built and the problems arising about the voting and floating of bonds to cover the costs.

Commissioner Weeks, Commission chairman, stated that before action could be taken there should be a meeting between the swimming pool committee of these civic organizations and the problems of construction. He invited all organizations to feel free to call on the Commission and he stated that the city board will be available most any time for a meeting with interested swimming pool committees.

An ordinance was passed on the second reading, with all four city commissioners voting "yes," to adopt the proposed estimated budget of $167,828.68 for the fiscal year starting October 1st and ending September 30th, 1949.

With the approval of all four members of the committee, a tax levy of 14 mills was voted to go into effect on January 1, 1949. This reduces the millage 2 mills under the level of last year which was 16 mills.

Orders have been placed for radio equipment to be used in police cars and the commission authorized Bob Bair and Police Chief Pennington to go ahead and make application to the FCC for a frequency on which the radio station will operate. The city will not have the expense of paying regular radio operators as the station will be operated by the local radio company.

The commission voted to re-appoint the old name of a municipal judge to all public utilities. This decision was reversed when the present city administration took over. This ordinance is effective October 1st. The re-appointment is as follows: ten per cent on the first twenty-five dollars, five per cent on the next fifty dollars, and one per cent on all over seventy-five dollars.

The commission moved that fifty-nine dollars in street lights be installed in the city. Harold Rabin, who has been in charge of investigating the street lighting situation, recommended the improvement. The $120, which is the city's part of the expense, will come out of the 1947-48 improvement fund of $600.

P. P. DeMoya, who was at the meeting on behalf of the Florida Power and Light Company, stated that a previous contract for city lighting terminated last August (1947) and asked that the contract be renewed. The board authorized Mr. DeMoya to present a new contract to the city for another ten-year period, at the next regular meeting.

The Elevator Operator examination is open only to persons entitled to veterans preference. The women are desired for the positions. Some of the jobs pay $11.60 a week, and others $20.00 and $21.57 a year. All applicants must have 3 to 6 months experience in the operation of electric or hydraulic passenger or freight. There is no age limit.

For further information and application forms may be obtained from M. K. Wright at the local post office.

Potato Crop Loans Available

Loans on the crop potatoes will be available from September 15 to December 15, in most cases, according to information obtained by the Washington office of the Florida Farm Bureau Federation.

Growers may also be interested in knowing that loan rates on the 1948 crop potatoes suitable for storage and properly stored in approved permanent storage will approximate 75% of the September bulk-at-farm support price, the Bureau reported.

To obtain a loan, a producer must have received a certificate from his county agricultural conservation committee stating that he is eligible to participate in price support program, has remained within his acreage goal and has offered only the better grades of potatoes for sale in commercial markets.

The Farm Bureau further pointed out that complete details may be obtained from the conservation committee office in each county.

'Too Late To Classify'

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY

Florida has so much to offer as a summer vacation land that it would rather "sit at home and play at home" than allow off to some distant state in search of rest and recreation.

As I stated in a previous column, I've been taking my vacation piecemeal this summer and last week stole away from the office for a three-day trip by water from Tampa to Venice and return.

Leaving the women and children at home, Bob Bishop of Orlando, Coleman Rogers of St. Petersburg and myself engaged "Old Hutch" to take us on this three-day cruise and it proved to be one of the most delightful outings I've experienced in a long time.

Traveling from town to town by water is a thrilling experience, and from the standpoint of rest and recreation it can't be beat. It's a lot more fun than tearing around in an automobile and I can certainly recommend it to you if you want to get away from everything, enjoy a complete change of scenery and catch up on your sleep.

morning after seeing to it that the ice-box was plentifully supplied with fresh fruit and vegetables, beer, Cokes and a general assortment of groceries.

Accompanied by a school of playful porpoise and a flock of hungry gulls we circled the bay past Port Tampa and MacDill.

While taking or ease in comfortable deck chairs while we took turns trolling for mackerel, snook, ladyfish, jacks or whatever member of the finny tribe might decide to make a pass at our shiny drones that trailed fifty feet or so in our wake.

When we tired that we would go below and stretch out in the cabin and read or sleep enjoying the easy roll of the boat. Seaways are much more pleasant to travel than highways and are not hard to follow when you learn to read your charts and come to recognize the buoys, markers, range lights and channel stakes. While you don't have to worry about soft shoulders or going in the ditch, you do have to watch the water depth for bars and shallow flats.

numerous and if you get too far off your course you may find yourself stuck on one.

We hadn't planned to stop at St. Petersburg, expecting to run to Bradenton or Sarasota the first day, but a broken water line forced us to put in there for a couple of hours while repairs were being made. Getting underway again in the late afternoon we prepared our supper and ate like horses as we watched one of the most beautiful sunsets I ever witnessed. When it comes to glorious sunsets, those Florida has to offer are mighty hard to beat.

While shore travelers were looking for a storage garage or messing with a parking meter, we just pulled off the channel, dropped anchor and lolled about, smoking, telling stories or listening to the radio until bedtime. While our quarters were close and it seemed that one or more of us was always walking in his sleep or snoring up a storm, we managed to get all the shut-eye we needed and before morning were looking around for sweaters, coats and blankets to keep warm.

The second day was delightful. We got under way at the first crack of dawn, went up the yonnie River to Bradenton, took on some ice and groceries then cruised to Anna Maria Beach, took a turn out in the gulf then returned inside, on our way to the inland waterway to Sarasota where we gassed up before making the outside run to the Tarpon Center at Venice

Inlet where we spent the night. Getting an early start the next morning we made our way back up the coast, stopping here and there, and trolling for mackerel which were scarce but large in size. We all gathered a nice mess of sunburn but not enough to prove uncomfortable and our trip was too short. Next time, which I hope will be soon, we plan to take enough time for a trip on down the coast to Charlotte Harbor, Boca Grande, Punta Gorda, Fort Myers, Sanibel, Dokolok and maybe the Ten Thousand Islands.

We all agreed that boating is much more fun than working for a living and this trip gave us just enough of it to want a whole lot more. The trouble with most folks today is their insistence on keeping their noses to the grindstone. I may wind up in the paper hospital or someplace, but thanks to Florida's sun and salt air I expect to be just about the healthiest inmate and I've got a crazy idea that the time and money invested in a trip like this is plenty worth while and it's not as expensive as most trips you would take to some distant point in your car.

DON'T SUBSTITUTE EXPERIENCE FOR COMBINES

For the past two years I have had the pleasure of serving as one of your City Commissioners. During that time my position was made clear on many occasions. The records are public, and open, and they speak for themselves.

The welfare of the entire community, not the welfare of any individual, was always considered.

Your vote and support will be the compensation for those tireless efforts.

Respectfully,

allies made a mistake in not taking serious the blue print which Hitler gave to the world of his intents. That Russia will not enter into a fight war until such time that she feels that she is ready and can conquer.

The International Paper company which operates eight mammoth kraft paper mills in Louisiana, Arkansas, South Carolina, Alabama, Mississippi, and Florida, controls some 2,115,131 acres of owned or leased forestry lands, has just released a comprehensive and illustrated booklet telling of its best cut for 1947. In these states trees are now considered a crop, and cutting and planting is on an established system, and that good forestry management is a profitable business. Its wood procurement department were instrumental in delivering to its eight plants, 2,874,371 cords of pulpwood a record for cordage wood harvest. For this timber nearly $30,000,000 were paid to the farmers and foresters and large wages to its 22,000 employees. More than 85% of the wood going to the mills travel by rail. Potential harvests are sizeable enough to maintain operation of several kraft paper mills the size of the company's plants in Florida.

"Next," said the new business college instructor to his boss, "I will give the class the fundamental of the triple entry system." "Triple entry?" echoed the head man. "I've heard of double entry, but what is triple entry?" "It's very simple," said the new instructor, "One entry for you showing the true profits, another for your silent partner, and a third entry for the income tax people showing a net loss."

Sometimes we back room employees of the HERALD have a dull moment, so our colored printer, Sam Singleton, gives the boys a little instruction and education in the manner in which some of the colored games of chance are played, and usually he ends being the victim of his own wiles.

Federal highway starts up at Mackinac Straits, Michigan and has been terminating at Tallahassee. Now through the efforts of the State Highway Department, its southern terminal is Miami. From Lansing, Mich., the route comes south to Ft. Wayne, Cincinnati, Lexington, Chattanooga, Columbus, and around the west side of Lake Okechobee and reaches Miami over route 25.

Our Federal Government through the Agricultural department has paid out around $175,000,000 in potato price substance mostly paid to farmers.

Here's something which may be heard from Coach Cooke's talking machine while addressing the football squad just before the opening game. "Remember, I want you to play this game with courage, dignity, honor and character. Now one last word, when you tackle break every bone in their bodies."

Stood by a contracting job the other day and watched a carpenter drive nails, which he was hitting several blows after the nail was under the surface of the lumber, and it brought to mind this story I once heard. Owner, "You hammer nails like lightning." Carpenter, "You mean I'm fast." Owner, "No you never strike twice in the same place."

Hogging peanuts is a common practice in the peanut bearing sections, and when this method of harvesting is followed, it is good fertilization for the land. For use for the peanut, it is clude: kernels for and in candy, baking, peanut butter, oil in margarine, shortening and in table and salad oils.

Change Of Certificate
Ranks Due October 1
Florida teachers and county school superintendents were warned today that all applications for changes in certificate ranks leading to higher teacher pay are due at the State Department of Education before October 1.

State School Supt. Colin English explained that the Minimum Foundation Program fund sent to the county for teacher salaries are based on the number of teachers who have applied for or hold certificates in each rank as of the first day of October.

Counties cannot receive additional state funds for teachers who qualify or apply for higher-paying ranks after that date. It takes from six weeks to two months to process applications for the teacher certificates as transcripts of training records may be obtained from colleges and universities over the nation, English explained.

The final certification of school funds to the Comptroller must be made by the school department on January 1. Included in the Minimum Foundation Program Fund for ten months service is $3,600 for each instructional unit earned in Rank I; $3,000 in Rank II; $2,550 in Rank III; $1,600 in Rank IV; $1,400 in Rank V; and $1,000 in Rank VI.

A preliminary estimate by the State Department of Education indicates that 59 white and 4 negro teachers now hold Rank I certificates; Rank II, 1,754 white and 181 negro; Rank III, 855 and 2,577; Rank IV, 1,160 and 707; Rank V, 901 and 454; and Rank VI, 330 and 157.

Seven Days Added
To Winter Duck Season

Through the efforts of the State Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, Florida hunters will be granted a substantial extension for hunting ducks, geese, and coot and doves this year, Director Ben C. Morgan revealed today.

A decision made by the commission last Saturday, will add seven days to the duck, geese, and coot open season, and in addition, will provide 10 extra days for dove hunters. The additional hunting days were provided by eliminating the commission ruling that would have closed Mondays and Tuesdays to migratory bird hunters during the season that is set by the U. S. Department of Interior.

"Although we were unsuccessful this year in our bid with the federal agency to have Florida's migratory bird season lengthened and the bag limits enlarged, we have found a way to give the hunters a longer season," Morgan explained. "This was accomplished by eliminating the commission's ruling that would have closed migratory bird hunting on Mondays and Tuesdays during the open season."

Under the new ruling, hunters will be permitted to shoot ducks, geese and coot each day from Dec. 10 to Jan. 8, and a daily shooting season will be provided for dove hunters from Dec. 18 to Jan. 31. Ducks, geese and coot may be taken from one-half hour before sunrise until one hour before sunset under federal regulation. The dove shooting period extends from 12 o'clock noon until sunset.

Under federal regulations, 4 ducks can be bagged in a day. The goose limit is one a day. The daily dove bag limit has been set at 10.

American Cancer Society Representative To Be Here

Miss Rebecca King, Registered Nurse, who on August first became affiliated with the American Cancer Society and Mrs. O. B. Carr, Commander of the Palm Beach County Unit of the American Cancer Society spent last Tuesday afternoon in Belle Glade.

Miss King and Mrs. Carr visited the hospital and a number of physicians with regard to the new Tumor Clinic at St. Mary's Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Miss King will be in Belle Glade at the City Hall on Thursday afternoon September 2nd, and will be available to give information and to furnish literature to anyone that calls.

Mrs. Carr stated, "This service is not for the indigent only but for everyone who would like to have advice about cancer. We hope that many people will take advantage of this service. Miss King will work in close cooperation with the local doctors and will be glad to have them call on her for any assistance she might render."

South Florida Premiere.
"A Foreign Affair"

Movie fans will have the opportunity to attend a "movie premier" Sunday, August 29, when "A Foreign Affair" bows on to the screen at the Hugo Theatre.

The motion picture, which has been released for public showing ten days previous to its screening here, has Jean Arthur, John Lund and Marlene Dietrich as stars, and it is rated as one of the finest comedies of the year.

The locale is in the American occupation zone of Germany. Lund is an army officer serving his country in that country, Marlene Dietrich is a night club singer and Jean Arthur is a Senator from the United States. In addition to the above named stars there are many well known featured players, whose clever impersonations add to the hilarity of the story.

This is the first time any section of the Everglades has been distinguished as a premiere and a record crowd is expected both days of the showing.
